FRIDAY'S DAILY.

Old Folks' concert tonight. Ed. Austin has gone to Santa Maria on mining business. Meyer Zulick is reported seriously ill in Washington. J. C. Herndon is "going it alone" now in the practice of law.

Don't fail to hear the old fashioned songs at the concert tonight. Dr. G. W. Vickers and Engineer W. A. Drake returned from Phoenix today. J. W. Francis, ex-sheriff of Cococino county, came in on yesterday's train.

Alex. Imhoff, manager of the Union Club Rooms at Jerome, is in town. Justice H. T. Andrews administered the oath of office to Associate Justice J. J. Hawkins. Police Judge Andrews had one solitary plumb drunk yesterday before him, whom he let off with a $5 fine.

Bidinger's barber shop has the best workmen in town and a visit to it will convince you of such. Three chairs. Thirty-five cents for a steak is pretty steep, but that is what a tender one imported from Kansas City sells for in Prescott just now.

Leave orders at Mountain City Drug Store for piano tuning and repairing. Instruction given on the violin also. Prof. Schlesinger, alto. Mrs. T. J. Butler and her niece will leave for Chicago tomorrow.

Mrs. Butler may possibly accompany them, or he may wait until May 1st, to join them in Chicago. Payment of checks of the Seven Stars mining company (the Hill side mine) was refused by the bank today on account of there being no funds.

Mrs. A. J. Hughes, wife of Contractor Hughes, returned from her visit to San Francisco a few days since. She was met at Ash Fork by her husband, and has gone out to camp to live.

If you would enjoy a few hours and like good instrumental music or a song well sung, go to Jerry Barton's, where Billy Johnson will entertain you. He is just the boss vocalist in town.

The new road to Whipple has been completed, and it is a fine drive way. By this road, all danger from the railroad is avoided, and it promises to become the favorite line of travel between Prescott and Whipple.

Auguste Klinger, a business man of Albuquerque, who is visiting Prescott, was shocked this afternoon to receive a telegram announcing the death of his wife. He left her in perfect health on Tuesday morning last.

A deed of trust from the Santa Fe, Prescott and Phoenix Railroad Company to the Central Trust Company of New York has been filed for record. The instrument is to secure second mortgage bonds issued by the company, to the amount of $3,000,000.

Hotel Burke arrivals: Geo. Davidson, Lockhart, N. Y.; C. A. J. S. Green, Hillsdale, N. J.; Francis, W. P. Riggs, Chandler; O. F. Anderson, Phoenix; Joe McKeague, Big Bug; O. E. Rumar, Mo; Mrs. F. F. Curtis, Copper Basin; C. E. Mills, Curtis; T. E. Young, Kansas city; G. G. Morrison, S. P.

SATURDAY'S DAILY.

W. O.'Neill left for the east yesterday. Chocolate ice cream at Schultz's to-night and to-morrow. Vanilla ice cream at Schultz's to-night and to-morrow.

T. A. Riordan, of Flagstaff, came in on last evening's train. Strawberry ice cream at Schultz's to-night and to-morrow. J. A. Fleming has not yet qualified as territorial treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Murphy returned from Phoenix this afternoon. Lemon water ice at Schultz's to-night and to-morrow as long as the supply lasts. Thomas Gates declined the position of assistant superintendent of the territorial prison.

Little Maggie Hartin, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hartin, died about 11 o'clock this forenoon. Henry E. Lantry and his engineer, Henry Houser, returned from Phoenix yesterday. Chas. Lantry went east from Phoenix.

Three saddles were stolen last night from Foreman Walsh's camp, in West Prescott. The thieves probably had horses staked out some place else.

No new cases of diphtheria or scarlet fever have been reported for nearly a week. All the cases under treatment now are said to be progressing favorably towards recovery. General T. J. Butler accompanied Mrs. Butler and her niece to Prescott today, en route to the World's Fair. The former will go about May 1st.

Miss Lottie Taylor, colored, was before Acting Police Judge Andrews yesterday, to answer a somewhat aggravated charge of drunk and disorderly, and was fined $5. The fine was paid. Mister Collins, also colored, was up for a mild case of the same kind, and was let off by dropping a V into the city treasury.

The Old Folks' concert was not held last night as the merits of the performance described. Those who were in attendance seemed to appreciate seeing the old fashioned costumes, and hearing the old fashioned singing of the old-time songs, and came away apparently satisfied. The performance was certainly a credit to all who participated in it.

Mrs. R. H. Burnister gave a delightful "social afternoon" yesterday to a large number of ladies from Whipple and Prescott. She was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. A. C. Burnister. The ladies brought their needle work and fancy work along with them and passed the time very pleasantly in social converse until about 4 o'clock, when they sat down to sumptuous refreshments. The menu of which, among very many other things, comprised such appetizing articles of diet as hot biscuits, salads, ice cream and strawberries, coffee, etc.

The close of the refreshments little Miss Helen Burnister presented each guest with a most exquisite souvenir, being a celluloid card, tied up with lavender ribbons, into a dainty little basket, which was filled with candy and violets, and in each was also an appropriate motto in verse. These souvenirs were highly prized by the guests, and will be preserved in memory of the pleasant occasion.

The rails on the S. F. & P. P. railway were laid last night up to the cut, north of town, on which Barney Walsh has his force of men at work. The rails were laid in the morning, and the work was completed in the afternoon. The rails were laid in the morning, and the work was completed in the afternoon.

Superintendent Coleman has the track laying force at work to-day putting in side tracks, and the Y. & N. P. will have this side of Whipple. The working train of the construction force will be brought to town to-morrow.

MONDAY'S DAILY.

Frank Blandy was able to be out today. Read J. L. Fisher's advertisement in this issue. The chain gang is cleaning out the city reservoir today.

"Angina" is the name formerly applied to diphtheria. The rocks for R. N. Fredericks residence are now on the ground. Rev. G. F. Bovard is expected to arrive in Prescott this evening.

A. J. Knoblock moved his camp into the pines, west of Prescott yesterday. Colborn A. B. C. Co., are obliged to hold back work, owing to lack of material. F. L. Carlisle of the Black Horse Mining Company came in on Saturday evening's train.

The Wyckoff club will meet to-morrow evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Martin. Henry Houser, better known as "Hank" the stage driver, died of erysipelas yesterday morning, after an illness of less than three days. He was buried in the afternoon.

A shooting accident occurred last night at the Union saloon, in which Joseph Hobbs one of the proprietors of the place shot a Mexican causing a serious and probably fatal wound. The ball is said to have entered the right nipple.

T. S. Bullock, who was expected here on Saturday, came as far west as St. Louis, from where he telegraphed that he was unexpectedly called to Mexico, to attend to his railroad interests there.

The board of supervisors met this morning and appointed civil engineer Col. A. O. Brodie and J. G. Van Houten, to make an examination of the S. F. & P. P. railway as constructed from Ash Fork to Prescott under the laws of the territory.

Colborn A. B. C. Co. has been awarded the contract to fit up William Dulin's New Grocery Store. The above firm has sometime since completed drawings and specifications for B. H. Weaver's residence which will be commenced before long.

Rev. C. J. Chase last night delivered the third discourse of his series on the Bible, to a large audience at the Methodist church. The subject was "Science and the Bible" and the sermon was one of the highest ever delivered in Prescott.

Next Sunday evening Rev. Chase will take up some of the "Hard Questions" asked in reference to the Bible and will answer them. A stabbing affray occurred Saturday night in one of the tent saloons on the Iron Springs road near Foreman Brady's camp. The victim was a Mexican and he was stabbed on the left side just below the ribs the wound being a very dangerous one. He was drunk at the time of the stabbing and was unable to tell at which one of the four saloons the affair occurred, and refused to tell who his assailant was.

The two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Simpson, who reside about two miles west of town, died on Saturday, of diphtheria. One of them died at 11 o'clock in the morning, and the spirit of the other followed at 7 o'clock in the evening. They were buried in the family cemetery yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The little ones were two years and eight months old, and their death is a severe shock to their parents.

Hon. N. O. Murphy, ex-Governor of Arizona, was in Prescott on Saturday evening and was warmly welcomed by his numerous friends here. During his absence of four years attending to official duties at the capital of the territory, his love for Prescott has not lessened in the least, and he is glad to return again to his old home and friends.

TUESDAY'S DAILY.

G. A. Swen has returned from California. Disordered liver set right with Beecham's Pills. Reese M. Ling and Milton Jones returned today from their trip to Phoenix.

A burning flu at the Bellevue caused an alarm which brought the department out last evening. James E. Bottoms, of the Keeley Institute, expects his wife and daughters to arrive on this evening's stage.

P. Shedy arrived in Prescott, yesterday to take the position of telegraph operator with the new road. E. S. Clark, clerk of the district court at Flagstaff, arrived on the noon train on the S. F. & P. P. road.

W. G. Wood a capitalist of Kewanee, Illinois, arrived on the S. F. & P. P. railway last evening. Mr. Wood is visiting Arizona with a view of investing here. Eddie Hartin the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hartin was taken sick today with the same malady that two of their children died with recently.

A horse purchased by Father Dilly, of Tucson, and driven by him to Prescott, was stolen last Thursday night. He arrived in Prescott on Wednesday, and on Thursday night his horse was stolen.

Miles Archibald came in to-day from Ash Fork, for the first time in nearly three months. He brought in train number 121 on the S. F. & P. P. railway, and left again on number 122 at 2:45 p. m., for Ash Fork.

The official time table of the S. F. & P. P. railway is out. The passenger train carrying United States mail and express will leave Prescott daily at 10:00 a. m., arriving in Ash Fork at 12:45 p. m. It will leave Ash Fork at 3:45 p. m., arriving in Prescott at 6:00 p. m. A mixed train will leave Ash Fork daily except Sunday at 7:30 a. m., and arrive in Prescott at 11:20 a. m. Returning it will leave Prescott at 2:45 p. m. and arrive at Ash Fork at 6:20 p. m.

Mining Intelligence. Hugh M. Truitt and C. M. Clark will shortly start sampling rocks at the Silver Belt mine in Big Bug district. The district is one of the richest in the county and the enterprise will no doubt do well being a great convenience to owners of mining claims in the district. It is proposed to pay cash for ones at their works.

Magnificent! That Was the Verdict of the Party That Went Over the S. F. & P. & P. R. R. Yesterday. A Marvel of Engineering Skill and Perfection of Construction. Scenery Unsurpassed.

As stated briefly in our last issue the initial train over the S. F. & P. P. railway from Prescott to Ash Fork yesterday between Prescott and Ash Fork. It was sent out for the purpose of carrying the engineers appointed to examine the road under the territorial law.

The following officers of the company accompanied the party: Major J. W. Vaughn, vice-president, and chief engineer; F. M. Murphy, ex-Governor of Arizona, and superintendent of construction; J. D. Carpenter, right of way agent, and contractor Henry E. Lantry. Other members of the party were ex-Governor N. O. Murphy, ex-Chief Justice J. H. Wright, Mr. J. C. Bradford, and J. W. Smith, Mayor J. O! the Agony

Of Those who Suffer from Scrofula

Hood's Sarsaparilla Purifies, Soothes, Heals, CURES.

Mr. T. F. Johnson, San Jose, Cal.

"I have for many years been a great sufferer from SCROFULA breaking out on my arms and legs; they were covered with eruptions and sores, discharging all the time. I tried very many medicines and consulted physicians far and near, but constantly grew worse. I have taken but three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and am now cured."

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Scrofula, Rheumatism, and has derived so much benefit from it that she declares there is no other medicine on earth. We would not be without it in the house if it cost $20 a bottle. T. YANNEY JOHNSON, San Jose, Cal. N. B. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels. 25c.
